San Ramon Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Danielle Cook as New President/CEO

San Ramon, California – The San Ramon Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is pleased to announce the selection of Danielle Cook as its new President/CEO. Danielle is a longtime San Ramon resident who brings a wealth of experience as a skilled marketing and public relations professional with a deep commitment to the San Ramon community.

Danielle’s background in marketing and public relations, combined with her dedication to fostering community connections, makes her an ideal fit to lead the Chamber. Known for her strategic vision and expertise in brand building, Danielle is passionate about helping San Ramon businesses grow and thrive. She has a proven track record of creating impactful marketing campaigns and engaging the community in meaningful ways.

Danielle will take the reigns as President/CEO from Heidi Kenniston-Lee, who has decided to step aside in order to give more attention to her own local business.

“I am honored to lead the San Ramon Chamber of Commerce and excited to work alongside our Board of Directors and Chamber members to continue Heidi’s great work in supporting and uplifting our local business community,” said Cook. “San Ramon is a vibrant place to live, work, and do business, and I look forward to helping our Chamber play a key role in fostering growth and success for our members.”

Mino Sastry, Chair of the San Ramon Chamber Board of Directors, shared his confidence in Danielle’s leadership: “While we will all miss Heidi’s leadership and energy, we are excited to welcome Danielle as our new leader. Danielle brings a fresh perspective, strong marketing skills, and an unwavering commitment to the success of our local businesses. We are confident that her leadership will help the Chamber and its members continue to reach new heights of impact and success.”

Danielle has experience as a marketing and public relations consultant as well as Director of Marketing and Corporate Communications. She is a 26-year resident of San Ramon and a dedicated school and community volunteer.
